It's the Most Wonderful Time of the Year . . .

It's the Time for Giving!

Consider: The Gift of God's Word!

A Hindu man was helping his friend manage his hotel when he discovered, God's Word for the Oil Patch. This is the Bible Oil Patch volunteers place in the foyers of hotels. He started reading testimonies written by individuals in oil related work and the Holy Spirit got a hold on his heart.

He called Hollas' cell and said, "I need to talk to someone about my soul!" Hollas called Robert Fowlkes, chaplain in Schulenburg, and asked him to go to the hotel and visit with him. Robert and his pastor, David Thompson, went and several hours later, this Hindu man had accepted Jesus as Lord and Savior! He then requested that he be baptized that night.

Bro. David made arrangements at his church for this special Wednesday night baptism. We were there to see this beautiful service! When he came up out of the baptismal waters, his countenance was radiant and his smile covered his face.

The Gift of God's Word has brought Truth to a former Hindu, who is now our brother in Christ Jesus! Yes, this is the season for giving God's Word to others.

Season of Giving is upon us

End-of-year giving is what helps Oil Patch Chapel Ministries get through those dry spells that we face throughout the year. Just as end-of-year giving may help you on taxes, each donation will give our volunteers another Bible to place in the hands of an oil field worker, as well as fund office expenses.

As we enter this season of giving, know that we welcome and depend upon your giving: no matter how much, when, how or how often.

We are asking that end-of-year donations be in our office by December 31st to insure they can be deposited and noted for 2014 giving.

Blessings and Thanks,
